SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 27

FRIGHTENED BY AN OLD HAG.-MISS Butler, daughter of Senator Butler, of South Carolina, received quite a fright yesterday afternoon at Blue Mountains, Md., from a half demented creature who inhabits the caves in the mountains, and picks berries for a livelihood. With a daughter of Judge Thayer, of Philadelphia, Miss Butler was chatting in the summer-bouse on the lower lawn, when the old hag made her appear ance. She has a most bideous form and is calculated to frighten anyone. Her height is a little over three feet, her face the acme of ugliness, while the nails upon her feet and hands are from two to three inches long and as black as ink. Not a tooth has she in her head, so that she only mumbles her wants and desires. She can yell loud enough, however, as it was one of her shricks that attracted the attention of the ladies to her Her body was almost nude, a few rags sewed together answering for a dress. As soon as the ladies saw her they ran as fast as they could to the hotel. The old hag ran too, and might have overtaken them had not Mr. James P. Shannon and several other gentlemen rushed to their rescue. The old woman was led away by an officer and cau tioned never to return to the Blue Mountain grounds again. She is well known to the mountaineers, and is regarded as a harmless creature. She is called the Wild Woman of the Mountains, and is frequently quoted to naughty children by indiscreet nurses.

For all diseases of the kidneys, bladder or urinary organs use Finney's Compound Syrup of Buchu, a positive and speedy cure for the following symptoms: Pain in the back, insomnia, nervousness, muscular weakness, vertigo, dizziness in the head, dropsical swellings existing in men, women or children, weakness arising from various abuses. As a blood purifier it has no equal it eradicates from the blood, through the kid neys, all uric acid and other poisons, leaving the skin smooth and free from all eruptions.
